THE LOCAL PAPER.

Charles Ans in Bates' Opinion of it as an Advertising Medium.

Speaking of the value of the "local paper" as an advertising medium, Charles Ans in Bates, in Trade Magazine, Philadelphia, says:

There is no printed thing which is so close to the heart of the community as the local paper. The pulse of local life beats in its every issue. An epitome of the world's news-gleaned in its bright pages, and the business news of the local stores should be in it, too; should be there, not "to help the paper along," not because "the editor is a nice fellow and we want to encourage him," not for any reason except the one great, abiding, business reason—that it will pay.

If a merchant will take care of his space, change his copy, keep it fresh and put interesting matter in it, it will be read as assiduously and as regularly as the priest's list of gossip. As it gets readers so will the dealer get customers.

Aggressiveness and confidence are essential in advertising. Find men do not succeed. It is the fellow who goes straight ahead, full of self-confidence, fearless, bound to make his point, that's the man whose business thrives and flourishes.

Let his advertisements breathe of honesty and truth. Let every statement be exactly a fact—no more, no less—but rather let him underestimate the goodness of his wares than overstate them. Above all, not to use "ifs," "ands," "or's."

The publisher will probably charge for the use of existing copy a new "ad," every week, which is perfectly right. It is worth all it costs. Rates in country papers are much too low in almost every case, even for a standing order.

Let the merchants wake up, and the publisher will be glad to do his part. It is wonderful how much good a little confidence and an enthusiasm will do. I do not care what town it is, intelligent advertising in the local paper will pay.

If you haven't time, or if you haven't the knack to write your own advertisements fresh every week, better hire somebody to do it. There are a hundred or more "business writers" in the country now, some better than others, but every one of them capable of producing an "ad" that would bring in more business than did their repeated everlasting. The editor of the paper will often do it gratuitously.

Give just as much attention to your advertising in dull times as you do when business is booming. A farmer doesn't do his planting carelessly just because harvest time is a long way off.

Advertising is business, and one of the most fertile fields to plant it in is the local paper. Put it there, water it, keep down the weeds, and it will bring forth fruit every day.

Properly tended, advertising is an certain to bring a good crop of business as prime seed wheat is to grow into good grain.

Monaghan's Bargains. A good quality home-made rug carpet at 30 cents a yard, table cloth at 15 cents a yard; good dress gingham, 6 cents a yard; the best 50 cent corset in the market. Lace curtains and dress goods of all kinds cheap.

A lady at Tooleys, La., was very sick with bilious colic when M. C. Tistler, a prominent merchant of the town gave her a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says she was well in forty minutes after taking the first dose. For sale by Grubler Bros.

Bear in Mind John A. Reilly's is the place to get the purest wines and liquors, best beer and ales and finest brands of cigars.

Special low prices to all in watches jewelry and goods at Holderman's corner Main and Lloyd streets.

PENCIL POINTS. It is said White street, between Centre and Oak, is to be paved.

The "Old Homestead" will close the theatrical season in town.

Goldin's property on East Lloyd street has been greatly improved by paint.

Israel Eisenhower is erecting a dwelling on the rear end of his lot on Plum alley.

A new pavement has been put down on East Lloyd street, near the power house.

By the way, isn't it about time to again agitate the paving of Main street, north of Centre?

A new building is to be erected on the lot in the rear of O'Hara's livery stable on Plum alley.

A new front has been put in the building on North Main street occupied by accountant John Wagner.

Poles and Hungarians are leaving town for their old homes across the big pond on an average of ten a week.

John Robbins is putting down a substantial flagstone pavement in front of his property on East Coal street.

Contractor Conry struck a small vein of coal at the corner of Centre and White streets, Saturday, while digging a drain.

If the authorities took any pride in the town they would see that the horse leads are taken out of the streets, alleys and gutters.

R. A. Davenport is tearing down his building on Jordin street, near Oak, and will replace it with a handsome dwelling and storehouse.

We have no recollection of ever seeing the town so badly cut up as it is at present. It is to be hoped the streets will soon be in proper condition again.

Gold Dollars for Fifty Cents. We offer this week one thousand extra fine Bullington Vests in ladies sizes for 75 cents; these are our regular 1.00 kind and are as cheap as gold dollars at fifty cents apiece.

Mrs. Aggie Lagota, of Spruce street, was startled from her slumber last night by a loud noise in the kitchen below, followed by a burst of steam into her bed room. On investigation, she found that William Lagota, a drunken foreigner, had crawled into the house through a window, had upset the stove in his wanderings, was pouring water over it, and enjoying himself generally. The intruder was ejected from the house, and paid Justice O'Brien a fine this morning.

ORANGE BLOSSOMS.

A Very Pretty Marriage at Mahanay City Yesterday.

Wedding bells rang in Mahanay City yesterday for the marriage of Miss Sallie Yienget and Nathaniel Moyer. Miss Yienget is the daughter of George Yienget, the well known butcher, and Mr. Moyer is a prosperous young business man of Newport News, Va. The knot was tied by Rev. Kelsner, of St. Paul's Reformed church, at the parsonage.

The bride was attired in cream cassimere, trimmed with lace and ribbon of the same color. She carried a bouquet of white roses and wore a small crown dress suit, white gloves, with white roses upon her lapel. The bride stepped into the parlor leaning on the arm of the husband elect. They were followed by the bridesmaid and groomsmen, Miss Nora Keihart and Mr. Harry Yienget. The usual questions were put and answered after which the couple were pronounced man and wife. They were then conveyed in a carriage to the bride's home on West Centre street where a reception was tendered them by numerous relatives and friends.

Among the guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Bright, Harry J. Moyer, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yienget, Mr. and Mrs. Keuhner, Yienget, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yienget, Jerome Weirich, Mr. Rev. Kelsner, Charles Becker, Mrs. John Reed, Miss Annie Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Twald, Mr. and Mrs. William Medlar, Mrs. George Drinn, Levi Bobb, Miss Keuhner, Bobb, of Mahanay, Plaine, and Miss Maggie and Lizzie Beyratt and Susie Kershner, of Tananqua. Tobias Gearhart served supper. Mr. and Mrs. Kline will depart for Philadelphia to-day and will shortly take up their residence in a beautifully furnished home at Newport News.

NOT THE MURDERERS.

The Two Suspects Released at Mahanay City Last Evening.

Special to the Herald.

MAHANAY CITY, April 16.—James H. Sarvis, Chief of Police, and Roundsmen Hannan, of Newburg, N. Y., alighted, from a L. V. R. R. train last evening and were immediately conducted to the lock-up. Mr. Sarvis glanced at Folk and Morris for an instant and quietly announced that they were not the men he was after.

He said that Morris looked enough like Sarvis, one of the murderers, to be mistaken for him at any place. The officer had known the criminal from boyhood and in fact was his uncle, so could make no mistake in the decision. A reward of $675 is offered for their apprehension.

Persons who sympathize with the afflicted will rejoice with D. E. Carr, of 1233 Harrison street, Kansas City. He is an old sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism, but has not heretofore been troubled in this climate. Last winter he went up into Wisconsin, and in consequence has had another attack. "It came upon me again very acute and severe," he said. "My joints swelled and became inflamed, sore to touch or almost to look at. Upon the urgent request of my mother-in-law I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm to reduce the swelling and ease the pain, and to my agreeable surprise, it did both. I have used three fifty-cent bottles and believe it to be the finest thing for rheumatism, pains and swellings extant. For sale by Grubler Bros.

DEMONSTRATION OF THE

HOW WE WILL PASS THIS BILL IF IT TAKES US—THE SMOKE PILLS.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—We intend to pass this bill if it takes us until snow next winter. Such was the assertion of Mr. Vester in the senate yesterday, and it well illustrates the temperance in which many of the Democratic senators find themselves. The slow progress which has been made thus far with the tariff has nettled the Democrats, and they are determined to press the bill as rapidly as possible. In fact, more progress was made yesterday than for some time, and a number of paragraphs in the tariff bill were passed upon. No amendments except those agreed to by the Jones conference were adopted. During the morning hour a few bills were acted upon and then the tariff bill was taken up. Mr. Voorhees introduced a resolution regarding the amount of revenue to be raised under the Jones bill, and it was this which caused the only exciting incident of the day, and brought to the rescue of Mr. Vester's assertion. He claims that the Republicans were filibustering, but Mr. Aldrich declared that it was not the intention of his side to resort to such methods.

In the absence of Speaker Crisp Mr. Dockery performed the duties of speaker pro tem yesterday. The naval appropriation bill was passed. An amendment was agreed to requiring all naval cadets appointed by the secretary of the navy to be actual residents of the districts which they were appointed to represent, and another permitting members of congress and delegates whose districts are represented at the naval academy by non-residents to nominate cadets from their districts. A pleasant episode occurred during the afternoon when Mr. Wilson, the author of the tariff bill, entered the chamber and received a warm spontaneous ovation from both sides of the chamber. Mr. Wilson will remain three or four days and then return to his home in West Virginia, to further recuperate.

Tragedy Suicide to End His Troubles. HUNTINGTON, Pa., May 16.—John Schaffer, aged 35 years, a young bricklayer of this place, walked out into the woods in the suburbs last evening and drew a razor across his throat, severing his windpipe. He was found a short time afterwards covered with blood, but conscious. He said he did it because he "never would get well," referring to a mental ailment which he has suffered from for a number of years. His brother, Rudolph Schaffer, a well known contractor, also suffered from melancholia which ended in his suicide in 1892.

Congress and Carnegie Contracts. WASHINGTON, May 16.—The trouble between the government and the Carnegie Steel company over the alleged defects in armor plates and bolts furnished the government was brought before congress by Representative Dauphy, of New York, who introduced a resolution providing for a joint committee of three members of the house and two senators, who shall investigate the condition of all armor plate and bolts furnished to the government by the Carnegie Steel company, limited, during the entire period of the contract.

Ex-Governor Price Must Pay Up. TRENTON, May 16.—Chancellor McGill has decided against ex-Governor Rodman M. Price in the contempt proceedings pending against him for some time, and has given him five days in which to pay into court some $40,000 which he received from the government from a California claim, and which was attached by his creditors. He ignored the court's order and applied the money to his own use. If he does not pay in five days he must go to the Bergen county jail and remain there until he does.

Received by Secretary Smith. WASHINGTON, May 16.—Secretary Hoke Smith gave a reception last night in honor of C. A. Collier, president, and the other officers of the Cotton States and International Exposition of Atlanta, Ga. Among the notable people present were Vice President Stevenson, the secretary of war, several members of the diplomatic corps, representatives of the exposition from every state from Virginia to Texas, and a large number of senators and representatives.

Foy and His Wife Reconciled. CHICAGO, May 16.—Andrew Foy and his wife have been reconciled, and are now living happily together at their home, No. 247 North Franklin street. The husband and wife forgot the difficulties brought about by the trying court scenes of the Coughlin trial, and agreed to come together for their children's sake. The romantic part of this episode is that John Coughlin himself was the actual peace maker.

Lillian's Matrimonial Failures. NEW YORK, May 16.—Lillian Russell and her husband, Signor Perugini, who is known in private life as John Chatterton, have separated forever and aye. It is understood that the trouble came when the couple were in Philadelphia last week. Miss Russell acknowledges the separation. Man and wife will, however, finish the present season together, and then they will probably be another divorcee case.

Katie Kupp Recovering. JERSEY CITY, May 16.—The condition of Katie Rupp, the German domestic from Rome, N. Y., who was murdered by her faithless lover, Bernard Aitenberger, a tailor, also from Rome, is much improved. The doctors now think that she will recover. Aitenberger, who was captured last night, admits his guilt.

Murdered by Highwaymen. HAZLETON, Pa., May 16.—John Hozey, a prominent Hungarian of Drifton, was found on Centre street, the principal thoroughfare of Frackville, with a bullet wound in his head. He died shortly after he was removed to his home. His clothing was torn and the pockets rifled, showing that robbery had been the motive. No clues.

Passed Over Governor Wertz's Vetoes. TRENTON, May 16.—The governor sent to the house the bill abolishing the office of county detective in second class counties, with his veto. The bills vetoed on Monday were re-passed by the house over the vetoes. Final adjournment of the legislature is not expected before tomorrow or Friday.

Stone and Daltzell Renominated. PITTSBURGH, May 16.—The Republican convention of the Twenty-third district renominated William A. Stone for congress by acclamation. At the Republican convention of the Twenty-second congressional district Hon. John Daltzell was renominated for congress by acclamation.

A GRAND ARMY INDEED.

Over 50,000 Veterans to Parade at Pittsburg, September 11th, Next.

Estimating with the Posts already heard from as a basis, it is considered certain that over 50,000 veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic will parade at Pittsburg, September 11th, next, during the 28th National Encampment, Pennsylvania will have fully 15,000 in line, Ohio, 8,000 to 7,000, New York, 2,000 to 2,500, and other states will be represented in proportion. Pittsburg and Allegheny county will alone have between 4,000 and 5,000. Free quarters have already been assigned for over 11,000 comrades, most of whom are coming from far distant points, and yet the encampment is four months away. There will be 2,000 mounted men in the procession, which is expected to consume over eight hours in passing a given point. The decorations and illuminations will be on a scale of magnificence never before known in Western Pennsylvania.

Letters received indicate that there will be a remarkable reunion of veterans who have gone out into the world from Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio, West Virginia and Maryland, afford an opportunity for the meeting of friends who have been separated anywhere from a decade to a generation past.
